

Daily Report – Saturday (Departure day)

09/05/2026

On Saturday we met at the ferry at 7:45 in the morning. We gave our suitcases and said goodbye to Pico. It felt strange because the week went by so fast.

At around 3 p.m. we arrived in Horta and later flew to Lisbon. At the airport in Lisbon we had some time, so we went shopping, ate something and met at Starbucks.

Our flight was delayed, so we finally left for Hamburg at 6:30 p.m. Everything was late that day. When we arrived in Hamburg, we missed our planned train and had to wait at the airport. After some time, we took the S-Bahn to the main train station and sat together at McDonald's.

Later we finally took the train to Bremen. We were all tired but happy and talked about the many beautiful moments we experienced on Pico. It was a long and stressful travel day, but we arrived home with great memories.
